If you are registered as a team you are allowed a substitute driver 1 night only. Only registered drivers are allowed to compete in the last 2 points nights. It is the driver's responsibility to notify the track handicapper of any driver changes. Failure to do so will result in the loss of all points and money earned for the race meet. All driver changes must be made before the feature event cars pull onto the racing surface. Only cars regularly competing and registered in their division are eligible for driver changes.

In Late Model and Super Stocks and Renegade Trucks 10 or more cars will be split into two heats, all other classes will be split after 12 or more cars. Each car will race two heats. The second heat will be an invert of the first heats original line up. If two or more cars are tied for points after the heat races, the car with the best finish in the first heat will receive the better starting position in case of a tie in finishing positions – the draw number will be used to determine the qualifying position.

Non registered cars or cars missing the previous two points events will start scratch in both heats and cannot qualify better than 6th place for the feature event.

Feature Inversion – after qualifying has been completed the driver with the highest points will role a single dice for the inversion for the feature event, if there 16 or more cars two dice will be used. A roll of two “1” will institute no inversion.

- e. When the race results are announced and there is a question as to your announced finish, you must contact the Race Director so that a scoring re-check can be made. After the re-check has been completed all results will be considered final. Any complaints are registered with the head scorer in writing, through the Race Director. At no time is a competitor to approach the scoring area or starters stand in order to dispute a decision.

Those cars involved in the accident, if any, shall start to the rear of those not involved. Regardless of the number of laps they have covered, this rule shall apply at all times and should enough laps have been covered for the race to be called a complete race, drivers will be scored and paid on the positions they would have held in the restart.
- c.3 INVOLVED CARS: Any car spinning out, or involved in an accident that brings out the yellow or red flag will restart the race in scratch position or may be black flagged. Any car leaving the racing surface must come to a stop before re-entering the racing surface in a safe manner. If you were signalled by the assistant starter to get into a position while running the yellow and refuse to do so penalties may be imposed at the discretion of the Race Director. Any competitor causing an intentional caution will be docked one lap by scoring.

While under the red flag conditions a driver may not work on his car with tools, lift his hood or have any of his crew enter onto the race track. Violation of this rule will cause the car to go to the rear of the line-up. Cars moving under a red will be black flagged from the race.
- F BLACK FLAG: Go to the infield only. If you have received a black flag because of mechanical problems in the race you will still receive points and or money for your finishing position.
